

THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF GOVERNANCE

Mongolia

ABOUT US

The National Academy of Governance, founded in 1924, is Mongolia's first higher education institution, created under the Cabinet Secretariat of Mongolia.

Aside from offering degree and certificate programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels, the National Academy of Governance also serves as the training and research institute of the Government of Mongolia. In doing so, it trains, re-trains, and educates civil servants, business managers, and social sector workers by providing them with both theoretical knowledge and practical skills in public and private management initiatives.

Mission

To take a leading role in the development of the Mongolian nation by offering world-class higher education programs, engaging in research, and providing consultancy services to all stakeholders in the future progress of the country.

Main objectives:

- To provide high quality education in management and enable graduates to become effective civil servants and managers.
- To seek continuous improvement in the quality of teaching and research.
- To offer an up-to-date portfolio of courses aimed at developing managerial skills and capabilities of civil servants.
