Section A

Women's Empowerment and Why It Matters

Learning Outcome:

Describe the key concepts of women's empowerment in relation to the 2015 Sustainable Development Goals

Write it down

Write down three words on a piece of paper.

What does
EMPOWERMENT
mean to you?

Case Study 1

A woman from South Asia/A typical profile

I grew up in a village. At age six, I started going to school but I had to help my mother cook and clean at home so I did not have much time to do homework. At times that we had drought, I stopped going to school to help my mother fetch clean water. My only hope was to marry a man who would care for me. I married at age fifteen. I am now 30 years old and I have five children. My husband works hard in the fields to provide food and money for our needs. I would like to earn extra money, maybe raise ducks or chickens and sell the eggs, but I cannot get a loan. I might get a job in a factory in town, but women who moved a log between home and work can get raped. I can look after a rich lady's children and stay in her house. It does not pay as much but it would be safer. But who would look after my children?

Empowerment means that people – both women and men -- can:

- take control over their lives
- set their own agendas
- gain skills – or have their own skills and knowledge recognized
- increase self-confidence
- solve problems, and
- develop self reliance

UN Women, Women's Empowerment Principles 2011

Empowerment is:

- a process of change
- increases choice (resources)
- enhances capacity to make or act on choices favorable to oneself, to society

agency

True empowerment provides women with agency.

Ability to make decisions about her life

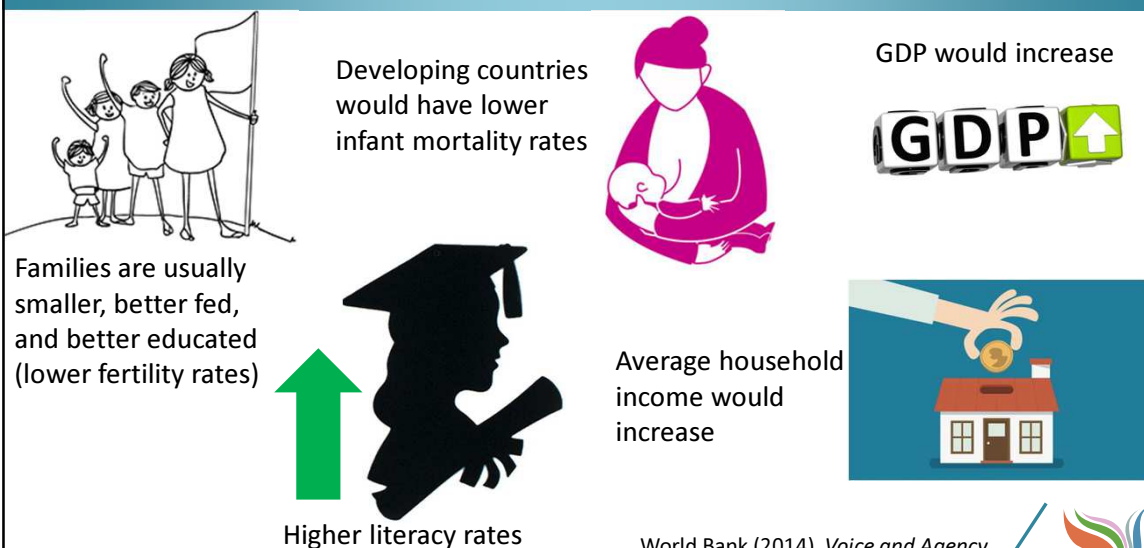

To work on decisions to achieve desired outcomes without outside influence or fear

- Agency drives a woman to overcome the systemic societal disadvantages.
- It makes sure that women are:
  - Free from violence
  - Have control over their sexual and reproductive rights
  - Can get their voice heard
  - Have social and economic mobility
  - Have the ability to own and control financial assets
  - Have control over their own income

If women are empowered through employment...

World Bank (2014), Voice and Agency
 Aguirre et al. (2012), Empowering the Third Billion

Components of Women Empowerment

Cognitive	Education
Psychological	Norms and society
Political	Right to vote Eligibility as leaders
Economic	Property ownership Land rights Access to credit & other productive resources

Atefe Mansoori, Afghan Company Director

- Saffron processing and export
- Only a few farmers started to supply her just to test her ability
- Convinced men and women in her village on benefits of employment

Something to do:

In terms of women's representation at the local and national levels,

- In which sectors of the country are women doing well?
- In which sectors they are lagging behind?

According UNDP's Gender Inequality Index, how is the country doing?

Please consult: <http://hdr.undp.org/en/content/gender-inequality-index-gii>

Is there scope(s) for improvement? If yes, how?

ICT for women's empowerment

- ICT has a critical role to play in ensuring gender equality and gender empowerment.
- Access to ICT can empower women to get their voices heard at community, state and international levels.
- ICT helps women to create their own space and agency.
- ICT helps women to gain better status within their society and to excel professionally, according to their own choice.
- ICT not only helps to achieve SDG 5, but also works as a key enabler to achieve the other SDGs

(MORE on Section C)

Something To Do

- In terms of fulfilling the Millennium Development Goals, how did the country perform?
  - Please consult: <http://mdgs.un.org/unsd/mdg/default.aspx>
- Write down some major opportunities and challenges your country may experience while achieving SDGs.
- Identify elements to focus on in order to achieve SDG 5 in your country.

Key Messages

The SDGs promote women's empowerment by observing the principle of inclusiveness, whereby development must ensure that no one is left behind. The SDG 5 gives special focus to promoting gender equality and women's empowerment.

ICTs can enable women's empowerment because they are tools that can raise awareness on empowerment, encourage literacy and education, connect markets with sellers, and serve as a platform for dialogue.

List the major barriers and enablers of women's empowerment.

Barriers and Enablers

Barriers and Enablers

- Improving public services for women, mechanisms to address women's needs

- Inclusive social initiatives

- Women's political participation
- Entrepreneurship

- Legal reform & responses

Global Situation: Where are we today?

Global Situation: Where are we today?

Global Situation: Where are we today?

- Girls from the poorest households are less likely to complete their primary education than boys, whereas girls and boys from rich households are equally likely to complete primary school.

Global Situation: Where are we today?

MATERNAL DEATHS

45% fewer maternal deaths
worldwide than in 1990.

But
800 women still die every day from preventable pregnancy-related causes. 99% of these deaths occur in developing countries.

Where are we today?

ACCESS TO CLEAN WATER

2 billion people gained access to clean drinking water from 1990 to 2010.

But women still spend 16 million hours per day collecting water in 25 sub-Saharan countries.

WOMEN
16 MILLION
HOURS

MEN
6 MILLION
HOURS

CHILDREN
4 MILLION
HOURS

Global Situation: Where are we today?

WAGES

50% of the world's working age women (15 or over) are in the labour force, compared to over 75% of working age men.

And globally women earn 24% less than men.

Women take the major work burden

Global Situation: Where are we today?

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

In 1993, the UN General Assembly Declaration on the Elimination of Violence against Women provided a framework for action on the pandemic.

But
more than 20 years later, 1 in 3 women
still experience physical or sexual violence,
mostly by an intimate partner.

Another perspective on gender gaps and opportunities to reduce these gaps – the Global Gender Index.

Global Gender Gap Index (2006-2017)

World Economic Forum (WEF) introduced this in 2006 to provide a framework for measuring gender disparities and track progress over time.

Rankings are designed to create global awareness of the challenges posed by gender gaps and opportunities created by reducing them.

Benchmark of 144 countries on their progress towards gender parity across four thematic dimensions:

- Economic participation and opportunity
- Educational attainment
- Health and survival
- Political empowerment

Something To Do

- What is the present ranking of your country in UNDP's Human Development Index? Consult: <http://hdr.undp.org/en/content/human-development-index-hdi>
- In which sectors are women from your country engaged in professionally? Are they facing any discrimination? Please consult: <http://www.ilo.org/gender/lang--en/index.htm>
- In your country, are there any laws that discriminate against women in terms of social, legal and professional rights?
- Are there any discriminatory social norms that are not sanctioned by the government but widely practiced?

Enabling Factors

Engaging other stakeholders

Legal reform and responses

Increasing women's political participation

Improving education services for women

Leveraging ICT

Ringling the bell against domestic violence in India

- Indian men and boys have started to break the cycle of violence against women. When they hear a man abusing a woman inside a nearby home, they would ring the doorbell or find a way to interrupt the violence.
- This campaign known as Bell Bajao ("ring the bell" in Hindi) has led to an increased awareness of laws against domestic violence and increased reporting of the crime.
- Once seen as acceptable, it is making violence against women unacceptable and helping promote a natural alliance among women and men against any form of abusive behavior.

Related links:

- Bell Bajao homepage <http://www.bellbajao.org/>.
- Why should men care about domestic violence? <http://bellbajao.org/home/men-for-bell-bajao/>

Legal reforms

- Promoting women's empowerment will require changes in
  - the national constitution
  - in legal processes and procedures
  - in government regulations and in budgetary provisions
- In order to combat gender-based violence, different countries are enacting specialized laws or incorporating provisions within the existing legal structure
- A study shows that 38 out of the 100 countries analyzed have explicitly criminalized marital rape and sexual assault within marriage

Increasing political participation

POLITICS

The percentage of women in parliament has nearly doubled
in the last 20 years.

But
this only translates into 22% of women in parliament today.

<http://www.unwomen.org/en/digital-library/multimedia/2015/9/infographic-gender-equality-where-are-we-today>

Increasing roles decision making

SENIOR MANAGEMENT

25 women CEOs lead Fortune 500
companies today,
compared to only 1 in 1998.

But this is a mere 5% of all CEOs
on the list.

<http://www.unwomen.org/en/digital-library/multimedia/2015/9/infographic-gender-equality-where-are-we-today>

Education for Women

- An extra year of education increases a girl's income by 10 to 20 percent and is a significant step on the road to breaking the cycle of poverty.
- Women need particular support and encouragement to enter science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM).
- Recent research found significant and positive correlations between STEM education and women with high capabilities.

Leveraging ICT

- ICT can provide new opportunities for women's economic empowerment by:
  - Creating business and employment opportunities for women as owners, managers and employees of ICT-based projects.
  - Improving services that are run by women (e.g., literacy programs, business planning courses, ICT training, access to market and trading information services, and e-commerce initiatives).
  - Offering economic opportunities in salaried employment and entrepreneurship, as well as in the ICT sector itself and in jobs enabled by ICT.

Key Messages

- Women comprise half the world's population and are contributing to socio-economic, political and cultural development.
- Women are relegated on the side as passive participants of development (discrimination), are unable to benefit from public services, and are often victims of violence.
- For women to claim their place as equal partners of development, processes for empowerment must be supported.

Section C

How can ICT Promote and Enable Women's Empowerment?

Learning Outcome:

Give specific examples of how ICT can support women's empowerment

What is ICT?

- Information and Communication Technology or ICT refers to all technology for creating, manipulating, storing, managing, sending and receiving information.
- ICT encompasses a wide range of multimedia and communication tools
- ICT can include, but is not limited to,
  - Old media such as radio, television and telephone, as well as
  - New media networks (fixed or wireless Internet), hardware (computers, mobile phones, tablets, etc.), and
  - Software (social media services, multimedia applications, mobile applications, etc.)

Challenges to Women's Use of ICT

- Digital divide – access issues
- High cost of ICT infrastructure
- Online violence against women
- Poor enforcement of ICT policies, cyber laws

Key Messages

ICT can be used to aid social transformation and ultimately help empower women and men.

Socio-economic factors can prevent women from actively using ICTs to help themselves and take control of their lives.

ICT for women's empowerment can improve access to information, public service delivery, and economic and political participation.

Thank You!
